Brief report on Inspection:-

Earlier this shelter was for physically challenged people and was being run in the name of "Viklang Sahara samiti" with effect from 15/12/2014 this centre has been taken over by another NGO in the name of "Ashray Adhikar Abhiyan" and being run by synonymous name.

During day time 3 or 4 inmates use the shelter but at night can accommodate about 20 inmates. Whenever police personnel bring any fresh inmates there is incharge at night to receive and accommodate the inmate throughout night.

Dilip Kumar and Satinder Singh alternates day & night duty as incharge. Centre has deployed are employee for general cleanliness and for cleaning toilet and bathroom.

Centre has provision for first aid and medicine for common ailments.

NGO is providing one Rus and one tea in the morning to each inmate.

NGO promised to install TV in the premises by 26/12/2014 which will be confirmed on the next visit.

Acid and phenyl for cleaning toilet also available in sufficient quantity (three bottles)

NB: There are no "before" photos as this was my first inspection.
