No: PS/CEO(DUSIB)/2013/D- 159

Dated: 26/06/2013

ORDER

Subject: Instructions for resolving the issues arising while determining the eligibility of JJ dwellers for allotment of flats under INNURM.

1. Vide order NO. PS/CEO(DUSIB)/2013/D-117 dated 29.04.2013 clarifications/ instructions were issued to enable the Eligibility Determination Committees to decide the eligibility or otherwise of applicants.
2. Certain additional issues have been encountered while determining the eligibility and to resolve those issues, a Committee of Dy. Directors, Asstt. Directors and Surveyors was constituted to give its recommendations. The Committee has given its recommendations on 06.06.2013.
3. In continuation of the above order and in exercise of the powers conferred in Para 14, read with para 19, the following additional clarifications/ instructions are being issued.

(a) Applicants having different survey number but same address.

Resolution: Applications of all those applicants whose name exist in the survey list will be examined for eligibility determination considering them as distinct units. However, in all cases of eligible JJ dwellers having the same address photography of the beneficiary in front of the jhuggi would be done before relocation and the photograph would be kept in the individual file of the beneficiary.

(b) Variation in address of the applicant in the documents submitted by the applicant.

Resolution: The eligibility of the applicant would be determined if the cluster is the same in all documents. Relocation is based on whole slum approach. If the JJ dweller is staying in the same cluster at different points of time he can be considered eligible.
