GREATERNOIDA: A woman and her daughter were found dead inside their flat in Gaur City-2 township on Wednesday, two days after they were allegedly murdered by her son, a minor, police said.

Moreover, ₹2 lakh in cash kept in a cupboard was reported missing.

"We suspect the murder was committed by the 16-year-old boy, who is missing. The father has refrained from making any statement. We registered a case of murder against unknown person(s).

"Our priority is to trace the boy to ascertain the sequence of events," Bisrakh station house officer Ajay Kumar Sharma said.

The woman is 42 years old and daughter is 11. The matter was reported after the woman did not respond to her husband's call for two days, police said.

Their bodies were found on a bed in a semi-decomposed state. Their faces were disfigured with a sharp object, and there was froth around the girl's mouth, police said, adding that they may have first been poisoned before they were battered with a cricket bat that was found with blood stains near the bodies.

The autopsy report is awaited, police said.

The husband owns a showroom in Noida, and had left for Surat, Gujarat, for work on Monday morning. His parents, who live with him, were out in Uttarakhand for a wedding when the incident took place.

The had shifted to the 4BHK flat in April this year. "The husband first got suspicious when his calls around 10.30pm on Monday went unanswered.

"On Tuesday morning, he asked his neighbours to check on his family; He was told that the door is locked. On Tuesday night, when he called his wife again, her cellphone was switched off prompting him to call his cousin, who reached the flat to find it locked. He waited for someone to respond from inside the house, and called the police after some time," Sharma said.

A police team rushed to the spot and broke the door open.

Police said the murder took place on Monday night.

While assessing the CCTV footage during preliminary investigation, the boy can be seen leaving the society with his mother and sister around 7pm and returning with them around 8.45pm on Monday.

The boy is next seen walking out of the housing complex with a backpack at 11pm on Monday.

This time, the boy is seen wearing a different set of clothes, police said, adding they also found a bloodstained T-shirt and a pair of pajamas

The boy, who studies in a reputed private school, was not doing well academically for the past few months and his father had confiscated his cellphone in September.

"The CCTV footage does not show any other person entering or leaving the flat. Also, there was no entry against the flat in the visitors' logbook with the security guards," said the SHO, who is investigating the case.

Cornered juvenile opens fire at police officers in Sangam Vihar, nabbed

NEW DELHI: A juvenile was held after he allegedly opened fire at a police team in south Delhi's Sangam Vihar on Tuesday evening after finding himself cornered, police said on Wednesday.

The 17-year-old was able to fire only once before the police team returned fire and overpowered him, said Romil Baaniya, DCP (south). The teenager was found to be involved in at least three robbery cases over the past few weeks in Sangam Vihar and surrounding areas. A semi-automatic pistol and two live rounds were recovered from him.

Two adults, who were part of his gang, have been arrested. The DCP said that the first arrest from the gang happened on Tuesday when a tip-off led to the arrest of 22-year-old Virat, an associate of the juvenile. At Virat's instance, one other suspect, Prince, was nabbed thereafter.

Baaniya said that the police had been on the gang's trail for many days, but a robbery near a school in the early hours of Monday intensified the chase.

On Tuesday night, a police team received a tip-off about the teenager inside a DDA park in Sangam Vihar's G block. One police officer, constable Pankaj, who had got inside the park to catch him, was caught by surprise when the boy fired at him. "Our constable had a narrow escape, but he fired in return. That allowed the police to overpower the boy," said Baaniya.

The boy allegedly led the police to nine mobile phones the gang had robbed. Police said all gang members stole mobile phones to sell them and buy drugs.

DEMOLITION ANNIVERSARY

JNU cancels all events related to Babri demolition 'to maintain peace'

HT Correspondent
htreporters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: The Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) cancelled all the events related to Ramjanmabhoomi/Babri Masjid that were scheduled on Wednesday, the 25th anniversary of the demolition of the structure in Ayodhya.

The University said that the decision was taken to "maintain communal harmony, peace and stability in the campus."

At least four events, organised by different students' groups, were scheduled to be held at different venues and timings on the campus, including talks by BJP leader Subramanian Swamy and CPI(M) leader Prakash Karat. Swamy's talk on 'Why Ram Mandir in Ayodhya' was scheduled at Koyna Hostel mess on Wednesday but was cancelled after the administration sent a notice sent to one of the organisers on Tuesday.

Later in the day, the administration issued a statement, saying that all public lecture and talks were called off.

"The competent authority has cancelled public lectures/talks on the issue of Ramjanmabhoomi and Babri Masjid in the campus on December 6, 2017 in order to maintain communal harmony, and peace, and stability in the campus," the statement issued by Umesh Ashok Kadam, dean of students' said.

The statement also said academic discussions on various themes are permitted that contribute to knowledge enhancement and social order.

As per the posters of the events received by the administration, other programmes included: a rally from Ganga to Chandrabhaga hostel organised by Birs Amedkar Phule Students Association (BAPSA), a poetry recitation by Azaad Cultural Front and a public meeting by JNU students' union (JNUSU) at Sabar-mati hostel.

The JNUSU public meeting was to be addressed by Karat but the union decided to cancel it after the administration's order.

BAPSA, however, decided to go ahead with its rally — "Remembering 62nd Babasaheb Ambedkar's Mahaparivran Diwas and Demolition of Babri Masjid". "No permission is required to take out a rally and even the university notice does not say anything about rallies," a BAPSA member said.

JNU teachers' association said, "...strongly condemns this authoritarian cancellation. It demands that permission be granted for all talks that were scheduled today (Wednesday) to be allowed to proceed without hindrance."

Vishwas Anand, one of the organisers of the Swamy's talk, said they had permission to hold the event four days ago but on Tuesday that it was cancelled. "We are a group of independent students," he said.

University officials did not respond to calls and texts for comments on the issue.

Five men held for posing as CBI, police officers to extort money

HT Correspondent
htreporters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: The Delhi police on Wednesday said they had arrested five members of a gang of alleged fake police officers.

The arrested men included auto-rickshaw drivers and AC repair mechanics, who also did odd jobs but were not happy with their earnings. With the dream of becoming rich, they posed as CBI and Delhi police officers to dupe traders by claiming to arrest him in false cases, said the police.

Two city traders who had been allegedly abducted by the gang to extort money were also rescued in the operation. The five 'police-men' had told the two traders that they were 'arrested'.

DCP of Shahdara, Nurpur Prasad, said that on Tuesday police received a distress call about an abduction and extortion. The caller, Abid, told police that his two friends were kidnapped by 'crime branch officers'. Abid told the police that he along with his two friends had come to Pushta Road in Geeta colony to finalise a property deal but his friends were abducted in a white gypsy by the men.

The men had also allegedly shown an identity card with the words CBI printed on it.

"The two men were taken to different places and asked to pay ₹1 lakh failing which they threatened to frame the two men in a rape case. They even paid the first instalment of ₹10,000 and promised to pay the remaining amount in Daryaganj. All this while Abid who was in touch with the two, informed us about the case," said a police officer.

Prasad said that a police team spotted the gypsy near Daryaganj. A police constable risked his life by putting his motorcycle in front of the speeding vehicle to stop them. When the vehicle did not stop, two police officers, assistant sub-inspector Subhash and constable Vinit, clubbed to the vehicle for at least a kilometre and forced the driver to stop.

The five arrested men were identified as Mohammed Asif, Rizwan, Naseem, Samsuddin and Gaurav.

During interrogation, police learnt that Samsuddin was the kingpin of the gang. He had first met Rizwan in jail and formed the gang. After coming out of prison, they had roped in the other three.

"Samsudin knew that one of the duped men was arrested in a case so he planned to extort money posing as a cop. He lured the man to come alone on the pretext of striking a property deal," said DCP Prasad.

RYAN MURDER: JUVENILE SENT TO SHELTER AGAIN

Leena Dhankhar

GURGAON: The Juvenile Justice Board (JJB) in Gurgaon on Wednesday sent the 16-year-old student of Ryan International School, accused of murdering eight-year-old Pradyumn Thakur, to the juvenile home again for 14 days. He will next be produced before the JJ Board on December 20.

All replies to pending applications were filed before the Board on Wednesday. The argument on all the applications will conclude on Friday. The father of the juvenile had filed an application on November 28 claiming that the CBI officials were harassing him for the original date of birth certificate and Class 10 mark sheet of the juvenile accused, even though the photocopies had been submitted.

The CBI filed a reply on Wednesday saying that the photocopies of the documents are part of the judicial file.

AN APPEAL

My Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The Government of NCT of Delhi has established 248 Night Shelters for homeless people with basic facilities such as clean drinking water, toilets, blankets, bedding etc. These Night Shelter are open twenty four hours and are free of charge.

The Government is taking all necessary steps to ensure that people are not forced to sleep outside in the open during winters. It has been observed that public and the other charitable institutions are donating blankets, mattresses, quilts, warm clothing and money to homeless people particularly those who are found sleeping in the open. I appeal to such citizens and organizations to donate these items at the nearest Night Shelter or Control Room, DUSIB at Punarwas Bhawan, I.P. Estate, New Delhi-110002 only, and not on the streets or roads. This will encourage people to use the Shelters and not sleep in the open which is extremely dangerous in these winter months.

I appeal that if you find homeless people sleeping in the open, please do motivate them to shift to the nearest Night Shelter or send photograph through DUSIB "Rain Basera" App which can be downloaded by giving a missed call at
