

India dominate Australia

Suhas.Nayse@timesgroup.com

Nagpur: India bounced back in style by thrashing Australia to stay in the hunt for Thomas and Uber Cup quarterfinals at Bangkok on Monday. While Indian men's team blanked Aussies 5-0, Saina Nehwal-led side mauled the same opponent 4-1.

HS Prannoy, who surprisingly rested himself against France on Sunday, gave the team an early momentum by thumping Anthony Joe 21-19, 21-13. The captain's clinical victory set the tone for the rest of the tie as others also performed well and completed a 5-0 rout.

B Sai Praneeth and Lakshya Sen won their respective singles with utmost ease. The two doubles combination after a double whammy on Sunday against France finally lived up to their potential.

Both the doubles pairs - MR Arjun-Shlok Ramchandran and Arun George-Sanyam Shukla - won in contrasting fashion.

India, who were shocked by lower-ranked France 1-4 in the

THOMAS & UBER CUPS

Ir opening outing, will take on top seed China on Tuesday.

Earlier, the script was more or less same as Indian eyes steamrolled Aussies 4-1 in the Uber Cup. Saina Nehwal provided a flying start with a straight-light game win over Hsuan-Yu Wendy Chen. The 28-year-old overcame the late challenge from her opponent to win 21-14, 21-19 in 35 minutes.

Saina was in top form in the first game which she wrapped up within no time. However, Chen staged a fightback in the second game and was leading initially by five points. However, Saina caught her and levelled the scores 19-19 before sealing the match with a couple of points in the end.

Australia equalized the issue in the first women's doubles encounter as Gronya Somerville and Renuga Veeran shocked high-ranked Meghana Jakkampudi and Poorvisha S Ram 21-13, 21-16. India will clash with top seeds Japan on Wednesday.

RESULTS:
Uber Cup: India beat Australia 4-1
Thomas Cup: India beat Australia 5-0.

IT'S THE GOODBYE SEASON

Emotional Send-Offs Given To Iniesta, Torres

Barcelona: Barcelona captain Andres Iniesta lifted a ninth Liga title after his side beat Real Sociedad 1-0 on Sunday in an emotional final game for the midfielder at the Nou Camp while Fernando Torres scored twice in his final game for Atletico Madrid.

Phillippe Coutinho rattled in the only goal in the champions' final game of the season in the 57th minute as they finished the campaign with 93 points, while Torres struck both of Atletico's goals in their 2-2 draw at home to Eibar.

Coutinho drifted inside from the left and held off two defenders outside the area before rattling the ball in off the farpost with a venomous shot. Lionel Messi started the game on the bench but replaced Coutinho in the 67th minute. Iniesta was substituted in the 82nd, hugging most of his team mates as well as some Real Sociedad players and the referee as he left the Nou Camp pitch for the last time as a Barca player.

Barca's fans held up a mosaic before the game reading "Infinite Iniesta". They later revealed a banner saying "Thanks for so much" in tribute to a player who came through their academy 22 years ago and spent 16 seasons pulling the strings in midfield, winning nine Liga titles, four Champions Leagues and six domestic Cups. They continued to sing Iniesta's name long after he had gone off the pitch. The captain returned with his team mates after the final whistle to lift the club's 25th Liga title and also show off the King's Cup trophy which they won in April, beating Sevilla 5-0 in the final.

"Today is a difficult day. I have spent 22 marvellous years here and I've been so proud to defend and represent this badge, which for me is the best in the world," Iniesta said, addressing Barca fans from the Nou Camp pitch.

Atletico were given a guard of nour by Eibar's players before kick off after beating Olympique de Marseille 3-0 in Wednesday's Europa League final, which was Torres's first trophy with the club where he has spent the majority of his career.

Torres, who wore the captain's armband in his final game, tapped in to an empty net in the 42nd minute to cancel out Kike Garcia's opener.

The Spaniard then gave Atletico the lead on the hour mark, latching on to a through ball from Diego Costa and rounding the goalkeeper to score his 129th goal for the club. He was then booked for jumping over the advertising boards to celebrate with supporters. "I have had the privilege to wear this shirt in over 400 games and it's very tough to know that this is the final time," said an time has run out."

Fans held up flags with "Sarri, stay with us!" as Napoli ended their record-breaking season with a 2-1 win that condemned Crotona to second-tier football next season.

Inter Milan snatch Champions League spot from Lazio
Inter Milan snatched the final Champions League berth with a dramatic come-from-behind 3-2 win over direct European rivals Lazio on the final day of the season at the Stadio Olimpico on Sunday. Inter had to win in order to take third place from Lazio who had a superior head-to-head record and needed just to draw.

Late goals from captain Mauro Icardi and Matias Vecino ensured Inter return to Europe for the first time since the 2011-2012 season, along with Juventus, Napoli and Roma.

Liverpool can level Real's experience with desire: Klopp
Liverpool: Liverpool manager Jurgen Klopp says his team can compensate for their lack of Champions League final experience by showing greater desire and work-rate than Real Madrid in Saturday's clash in Kiev.

Real Madrid are looking to win their fourth Champions League final in five years while Liverpool are in their first final in the competition since 2007. "They are more experienced. That is a fact," Klopp said. "Experience is very important in life but not the only important thing in life and especially in football. It is an advantage to be more experienced but you can level it with desire, with readiness, attitude work rate and that is what I love in football."

Iraq to host first international football tournament since 1990s
Baghdad: Iraq is to host a West Asia Football Federation championship in the southern city of Basra in November, the first international tournament to be staged in the country since the 1990s. Iraqi authorities late yesterday hailed WAFF's invitation to host the tournament, following the decision in March of FIFA to lift a three-decade ban on Iraq hosting international football. AGENCIES

Nagal bows out of French qualifiers

Paris: Indian youngster Sumit Nagal frittered away a one-set advantage against 10th seed Slovakian Martin Klizan in the first round to bow out of the French Open qualifiers.

Klizan enjoyed a giant-killing spree at the Barcelona Open, defeating Novak Djokovic and Feliciano Lopez. The World No 117 won 4-6-6-4-1. Ramnathan Ramkumar is drawn to clash with Great Britain's Jay Clarke and Prajesh Gunneswaran is up against Italian Salvatore Caruso in the first round.

It says a lot about the high level in which the TCS World 10K Bengaluru is held that both World Half Marathon champions from Valencia held on 24 March are contesting the race on 27 May — and it says a lot about the competitiveness of the race that they can hardly be described as clear favourites.

Geoffrey Kamworor, three-time World Half Marathon champion and one of the best road racers around, won the World 10K in 2012 and 2014, when he set the course record. These credentials perhaps set him above all other challengers, but he is not a regular racer at the 10km distance. He will be pushed by two-time winner, defending champion Alex Korol, who will be running here for the fifth time. Abraham Cheroben, who was runner-up to Kamworor in Valencia and ran 58:40 in the half marathon last year, will also be on his heels.

lencia and won by a margin but could still find it difficult to shake off two women with faster times at 10km. Her 31:35 from last year is bettered by Caroline Kipkirui with 30:28 and Senebere Teferi with 30:38, and both have some fast track times at 5km behind them. There are so many quality runners in both men's and women's races — that the only predictable thing is that we will have two highly competitive races.
