

HOUSING

1. As per 2011 Census Delhi's population has increased from 138.50 lakh in 2001 to 167.53 lakh in 2011. It is a matter of great relief that decadal population growth rate during 2001-2011 of Delhi has been reported as 20.96% as compared to more than 50% growth rate during 1951 to 1991 in each Census. Even decadal growth rate 1991-2001 was 47.02%.

2. The Housing Sector in National Capital Territory of Delhi is within the domain of DDA only as Govt. of NCT of Delhi has not been allotted the subject like land, land development and public housing. However GNCT of Delhi entered into the housing sector in a limited way during 11th Five Year Plan with the implementation of JNNURM programme. Other major programmes implemented under Housing Sector are construction of Staff Quarters for Delhi Govt. Employees, construction and management of Night Shelters for shelter less persons. The JNNURM projects approved by Govt. of India for construction of about 68000EWS flats are being implemented by DSIIDC, DUSIB and DDA.

3. Since DDA could not developed requires Urban Extension Area taking into account and matching with growth of population particularly due to migration in NCT of Delhi, the result in growth of unplanned habitats. However GNCT of Delhi is making its sincere efforts in providing all Basic Essential Civic Services in all such unplanned habitats so as to provide better living environment to such EWS and other deprived section/society residing in such unplanned habitats.

4. With massive investments made by the Govt. in providing civic services in such unplanned habitats, the quality of living environment has provided a lot which is evident from the following facts reported by Census 2011 results:

4.1 For total no. of 33.41 lakh households in 2011 there were 46.05 lakh census houses. It includes 5.13 lakh vacant houses and 40.92 lakh occupied houses. Thus during 2001-2011 decade 12.26 lakh new houses were constructed in GNCT of Delhi. It indicates that these new 12.26 lakh houses were constructed for addition of 7.87 lakh households 2001-2011 in GNCT of Delhi.

4.2 Out of 33.41 lakh households in 2011, 63.8% i.e. 21.31 lakh households were residing in Pucca houses constructed with concrete roofs, 23.4% i.e. 7.82 lakh households with stone/slate roofs, 5.6% i.e. 1.87 lakh households in GI metal/asbestos sheets roof of houses and 4.2% i.e. 1.4 lakh household is residing with brick roofs.

4.3 Out of total 40.93 lakh occupied houses 77.6% of the houses were being used for residents, 9.2% of the houses for shops/offices, 3.4% of houses for residents cum other use also and 5.8% of the houses were being used other than residential houses.

4.4 Out of total 33.41 lakh households, 64.6% household were residing in the houses with cement concrete floors, 15.6% of the households in the houses with mosaic floor tiles, 14.5% of the households residing in the houses constructed from stones and 2.2% of the households with floor constructed from mud.

4.5 Out of total 33.41 lakh households in 2011, 99.1% of the households were having electricity as compared to 92.9% of the households having electricity connection in 2001.

4.6 About 89.9% of household using LPG as fuel for cooking in 2001 as compared to 68.04% of the household in 2011. 5.3% of the household were using kerosene for fuel for cooking as compared to 24.4% of the household in 2001.

4.7 89.5% of the total households were having toilet facility within their residential premises in 2011 as compared to 7.7% households in 2001. Out of 89.5% households having toilet facility in their premises, 59.3% of the households were having toilets connected with piped sewer system. 20.5% of the households were having toilets linked with septic tanks and 2.1% of the households were having toilets with disposal into open drain system.

4.8 Out of total 33.41 lakh households in 2011, 81.3% of the households having the facility of tap water. It includes 75.2% of the households having treated piped water supply and 6.1% of the households having water supply from tube wells and rainy wells. 5.3% of the households were getting water supply from hand pumps, 8.4% from tube wells. 78.4% of the households were having water supply system within the premises and 15.4% of the households near to their premises, 6.2% of household getting water away from their premises.

Plan Outlay

XII FYP	:	Rs.226000.00 Lakh
Annual Plan 2012-13	:	Rs.46500.00 Lakh

Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission (JNNURM) has been formulated to build infrastructure by improving quality of services and spatial development of the city to bring about qualitative improvements of urban areas and also provision of low cost houses and up gradation of slums by providing basic services to the urban poor. The aim is to encourage reforms and fast track planned development of the city.

The Government of India has approved 16 low cost housing projects for construction of 67800 flats with a total project cost of Rs.3083.37 Crore under sub-mission for Basic Services to the Urban Poor (BSUP). Out of which 13820 flats are ready for allotment.

The Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board is nominated as the nodal agency for relocation /rehabilitation of slum and JJ dwellers. The Government has prioritized 52 JJ clusters for relocation and allotment of flats in the 1st Phase. The Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board is finalizing the list of eligible beneficiaries from the above JJ clusters whose annual family income is upto 1.00 lakh with cut-off date of 31-03-2007. The allotment of flats has been started and 85 eligible slum dwellers have been allotted flats at Bawana.

A new scheme named as Rajiv Awas Yojna (RAY) launched by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation, Government of India is being taken up by the Government of Delhi. The Delhi Urban Shelter Improvement Board is undertaking the preliminary activities of this scheme, like house to house survey of slum and JJ dwellers, mapping of JJ clusters and preparation of the action plan for Slum Free Delhi.

A total of 23 projects of NCT of Delhi approved by Ministry of Urban Development, Government of India, under sub-mission for Urban Infrastructure & Governance (UIG) are under execution including 12 projects of PWD, 3 projects of DJB, 1 project of NDMC, 1 project of DTC, and 7 projects of MCD. The first allotment of 500 EWS houses, constructed under JNNURM, will commence soon. This process of allotment of EWS houses will thereafter continue till all the already constructed 15000 EWS houses have been allotted to the JJ cluster households.

For the 12th Five Year Plan an outlay of Rs. 2660.00 crore is being proposed for above mentioned Scheme which includes Rs. 465.00 crore for Annual Plan 2012-13.
